Business Diversity and Leadership Alliance

2012-2013 Academic Year

Business Diversity & Leadership Alliance

Our Mission:

The Business Diversity & Leadership Alliance (BDLA) is the student constituent of the Undergraduate Programs office – assisting with the implementation of recruitment and retention initiatives as they relate to diversity appreciation and education. As volunteers, BDLA members provide assistance and support to the Undergraduate Programs office and serve as diversity-oriented leaders in the College of Business. The activities of BDLA primarily involve programs targeted to prospective students and current enrolled students. The objective of BDLA is to attract and retain high-caliber and diverse students in the College of Business, and to create a sense of community within Rockwell Hall, the home of the College of Business.

Requirements:

- Maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Attend the Fall Retreat: August 25-26, 2012
- Enroll in Social Justice and Leadership course in Fall 2012: BUS496, 3 credits, MW 3-4:15pm
- Attend weekly meetings: Thursdays 6-7pm
- Be committed to diversity enhancement and appreciation
- Commit time to volunteer for BDLA sponsored events throughout the school year
