The American Accounting Association (AAA): The American Accounting Association is the largest community of accountants in academia. Founded in 1916, the association shapes the future of accounting through teaching, research and a powerful network. (http://aaahq.org/)

American Institute of CPAs (AICPA): Founded in 1887, the AICPA represents the CPA profession nationally regarding rule-making and standard-setting, and serves as an advocate before legislative bodies, public interest groups and other professional organizations. (http://www.aicpa.org/)

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE): The ACFE is the world’s largest anti-fraud organization and premier provider of anti-fraud training and education. (http://www.acfe.com/)

Association of Latino Professionals in Finance and Accounting (ALPFA): ALPFA is the largest Latino association for business professionals and students with chapters nationwide and over 23,000 members. ALPFA is dedicated to enhancing opportunities for Latinos and building leadership and career skills. (https://www.alpfa.org/)

Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA): CIMA is the world’s largest and leading professional body of management accountants. Their mission is to help people and businesses succeed in the public and private sectors. (http://www.cimaglobal.com/)

The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA): Established in 1941, the IIA is the internal audit profession's global voice, recognized authority, acknowledged leader, chief advocate, and principal educator. (https://na.theiia.org/)

The Institute of Management Accountants (IMA): IMA is the worldwide association of accountants and financial professionals working in business committed to helping members--to expand professional skills, better manage organizations, and enhance career. (http://www.imanet.org/)

National Society of Accountants (NSA): NSA provides national leadership and helps its members achieve success in the profession of accountancy and taxation through the advocacy of practice rights and the promotion of high standards in ethics, education, and professional excellence. (http://www.nsacct.org/)

The Professional Accounting Society of America (PASA): Since 2005, PASA, a professional accounting society, focuses on entry-level and mid-level associates working at accounting firms across America. (http://www.thepasa.org/)

The Association of Professional Accounting and Tax Consultants (APATC): Formed in 1981, the Association of Professional Accounting and Tax Consultants Inc., consists of self-employed individuals whose focus is to assist their clients. (http://www.apatcinc.com/)

Accounting and Financial Women’s Alliance (AFWA): Formally American Society of Women Alliance (ASWA) formed in 1938, provides opportunities for women in all fields of accounting and finance. (http://afwa.org/)

International Federation of Accountants (IFAC): IFAC is a global organization, representing 2.5 million Accountants employed. (http://www.ifac.org/)

National Association of Black Accountants (NABA): Since 1969, the National Association of Black Accountants, Inc., focuses on promoting and developing minority professionals. (http://www.nabainc.org/)