Where can I access it?

Beyond B-School can be accessed in the resource library through your Handshake account.

Beyond B-School FAQs

Beyond B-School is a web-based tool that prepares business students, undergrad and grad, for their job hunt using a compilation of top-tier career services. The site features first-class tips and advice from reputable business minds through video and written word, on a variety of topics including social networking, personal branding, and resume development.

Who can use it?

All current CSU College of Business undergraduate and graduate students, as well as all College of Business alumni have access to Beyond B-School.

What is it exactly?

Beyond B-School is a website where you can find helpful advice and insight regarding your job search.

When should I use it?

Beyond B-School can be used at any time! Be sure to look through the content and watch the informational videos that are relevant to you during your job search, especially before submitting your resume/cover letter to a company or sitting down for your first job interview.

Why should I use it?

1. Fantastic advice from top-tier business advisors.
2. Tips and techniques can be learned quickly and are immediately applicable.
3. Preparation is key for being confident and effective in your job search.

How do I use it?

Simply login to your Handshake account, go to the Resource Library and click on the Beyond B-School link. From there, browse the website to find content that is interesting and insightful to you.