Where can I access it?

GoinGlobal can be accessed in the resource library through your Handshake account.

GoinGlobal FAQs *

GoinGlobal is the leading provider of both country-specific and USA city-specific career and employment information. The database features 38 Country Career Guides, 53 City Career Guides for the United States and Canada, corporate profiles and more than 16 million internship and job listings within the USA and around the world.

Who can use it?

All current CSU College of Business majors and alumni have GoinGlobal access.

What is it exactly?

GoinGlobal is a website where you can find country-specific career information for employment opportunities at home and abroad. It provides H-1B employer listings updated annually. It also provides professional advice and insider tips on such topics as job search tools, employment trends in major industries, executive recruiters and staffing agency contacts, work permit regulations, salary ranges and cost of living data, professional and social networking groups, résumé/CV writing guidelines, interviewing and cultural advice.

When should I use it?

GoinGlobal can be used at any time! Be sure to look through the content for your job search, especially when seeking for jobs away from your home country.

Why should I use it?

GoinGlobal is the ultimate international job seeker’s guide

1. It is used for business and networking groups
2. Job search resource tool
3. Provides H-1B employer listings in each City Guide, as well as a state-by-state roster.

How do I use it?

Simply login to your Handshake account, go to the resource library and click on the GoinGlobal link. From there, browse the website to find content that is interesting and insightful to you.