What is the Business Administration Minor?

The College of Business at Colorado State University offers a Business Administration Minor which covers many aspects in the field of business, including Accounting, Finance, Marketing, and Management. The Business Administration Minor consists of 24 credits and allows students to focus in business in addition to their primary program of study. It is intended to provide students with a foundation in business administration.

Who is Eligible for the Business Administration Minor?

The Business Administration Minor is designed specifically for non-business students. Therefore, it is available to undergraduate students from any college at CSU other than the College of Business. There are no special admission requirements for the Business Administration Minor.

How Do I Declare the Business Administration Minor?

Attending a Business Minor Seminar is the only way to declare the minor. Once you attend a minor seminar it will take at least 3 business days for the minor to be processed through the system. It is important to plan ahead as you won’t be able to register for most minor courses until 3-5 business days after you have attended a Business Minor Seminar.

There is no limit on how many courses a student can take at another institution to count toward the Business Minor.
