The Department of Management helps students become good decision makers and managers. If you are interested in a career related to helping companies in a variety of industries effectively manage their human capital, the Human Resource Management Concentration may be right for you.

What Do Human Resource Managers Do?
Human resource professionals operate in a dynamic and changing world, managing the organization’s relationship with its employees. They develop and manage people, practices, and policies to ensure that they produce employee attitudes, skills, behaviors, and performance that companies need to achieve their strategic goals. They are commonly responsible for recruiting, hiring, on-boarding, training and developing, evaluating performance, compensating, providing benefits, counseling, and terminating employees. Human Resource Professionals are employed in every industry and are an essential partner in an organization’s strategic vision for the future and for ensuring the right people are in place.
